

PROVISION
about the VII International student's competition of research works
«The economy of the future», which is held in the framework of the all-Russian competition of youth projects among educational institutions of higher education
Derzhavin Tambov State University

I. General regulations.

- 1.1. The competition is aimed at increasing activities of students, promote their research activity, identifying worthy projects aimed at the study of the dynamics of economic systems, trends and development forecasts.
- 1.2. The competition will be carried out in part –time in four nominations.
- 1.3. The competitive works are provided in Russian or English.
- 1.4. Following the results of the competition, a collection of student research works will be published.

II. Participants.

- 2.1 The competition is carried out among specialists, bachelors and undergraduates
- 2.2. The number of participants of competition isn't regulated.

III. The competition nominations.

- 3.1 The shots of the future for the economy(the research of perspective directions of dynamics of a labor market, demand of professions, professional competences, etc.).
- 3.2 The technologies of the future and the firm economy(the economic efficiency of the application the new technologies in activity of firms of various branches, the research of efficiency of alternative energy sources, electronic systems, processes automation etc.).
- 3.3 The regional economy of the future(the economy of the smart cities ,the economy of using the alternative energy sources in housing and communal services in the region, the technology of management in the region, classification of the problems of stability in the regional economy in the future).
- 3.4 The global economy of the future (globalization, integration, removal of barriers, restructuring of the international economic organizations).

IV. The terms of competition.

- 4.1 The works are sent in electronic form on an e-mail address – econom.future@yandex.ru in the period up to October 31 this year.
- 4.2 The procedure of carrying out competition consists in an assessment and selection of ideas, the projects which are given to competition and determination of winners. The winners of competition are defined till November 22. The information about winners and laureates of competition is published on the university website.

V. The leadership of competition.

- 5.1 The responsibility for competition is assigned to the commission approved of the rector of the Derzhavin Tambov State University. The jury evaluates the works in time until November 16, and determines the winners.
- 5.2 The jury of the contest included leading teachers of the Derzhavin Tambov State University, Institute of Economics, management and service.

VI. The competition results.

- 6.1 Each work is estimated by two judges according to criteria of the appendix 1. The estimates of experts are summarized and the general rating of competitive works is established.
- 6.2 The winner of competition in the separate nomination is work with the highest general rating. In the case of disputable situations, the final decision is accepted by the chairman of the commission.
- 6.3 In each nomination are awarded 1, 2, 3 places.
- 6.4 All winners and their supervisors, as well as participants of the competition are awarded with diplomas and certificates.

Evaluation criteria papers in VII International student research contest
«The economy of the future», which is held in the framework of the all-Russian competition of youth projects among educational institutions of higher education

№	The criteria of evaluation	The estimated parameters	The amount of points
1.	Design	The references to the primary sources, numbering of pages, accuracy etc	5
2.	Introduction	The actuality, purpose, tasks, object and subject of the research	10
3.	The structure of work (content)	The plan, logic of creation of the work	5
4.	The theoretical part	The quality of disclosure of theoretical aspects on subject of the project	10
5.	The practical part	The presence of the author's forecasts, the revealed tendencies and justification of the consequences of the development of economic systems (the global, the separate states, the enterprises, etc.) or their resource providing (technological equipment, alternative energy sources, a manpower, etc.). The presence of author's offers about the increasing of the efficiency of functioning the separate economic systems etc	50
6.	Conclusion	The main conclusions reflecting the content of the work	5
7.	The list of references	The monographs, collections of scientific works, textbooks, periodicals, the internet	5
8.	The content of the scientific work	The level of authorship in the text	10
	TOTAL:	As much as possible amount of points	100

The requirements to design of competitive work:

Paper format – A 4.

The file - Microsoft Word.

The volume of represented materials – to 50 pages.

Font – Times New Roman, the 14th size.

The levelling of the text in the width, the line interval – 1,5, the paragraph – 1,5 sm, the automatic order of division of word.

The margins: top – 2 sm, lower – 2 sm, left – 3 sm, right – 1,5 sm.

On the title page are indicated:

- The name of contestant's university
- The name of work;
- The full name of the author with the indication of the status (post graduate student / student);
- The specialty, the course of the student or post graduate student;
- The full name, scientific degree and academic status of the scientific leader